Current Role	Teaching - Head of a PE Department.
Achievements	Qualifying as a teacher in 2004. Gaining a Head of Department Role in 2007, having only moved to Gloucester 6 months previously.
Personal Message	Having a strong PE teacher/Department inspired me to look into teaching. Noel Withers was also good enough to have me back on a work placement and even utilised me to teach lessons. With the backing and support of Harriet Smith and Jackie West I applied for a PGCE, where Harry even took the time to personally phone them regarding my application. Had I not been offered another job role when I qualified and accepted it on the same day, I would have taken the job that Noel offered me and returned to Mill Chase. Things happen for a reason, and the opportunities that I have experienced along the way have certainly made me stronger, and more able to deal with a number of situations in the role I have now. I have aspirations to become an Assistant Headteacher one day, but juggling this role and motherhood certainly takes its toll – but is manageable; maybe one day!
